

Case Study of Wahid reintegration to family

Wahid, 13 years old, Chapai Nawab Ganj, boy was a student of R. A. High School at the class of seventh. In the family life he was the younger among 2 brothers and one sister. His elder brother was at class 10 and sister was a student of class nursery.

His father Masud Rana works at a furniture shop in their town and his mother was housewife in profession. At 22 August 2018, next day of Eid-UI-Azha, he left home due to being a small misunderstanding with his parents. After leaving home, he went to Chapainawabganj railway station and stayed there. After sometimes he sat in the Mohananda train which is a train for Khulna-Rajshahi Travel. By travelling in that train he reached at Khulna railway station. After one day of arrival at Khulna, he met with street child Hossen and at 24 August 2018, 9am, he took Wahid to the DIC of JJS. The DIC is the center, where children living in street, have the lunch and health support. In the center, the social workers always working very hard to develop the mental health of the street children and tries to reintegrate with various facilities they deserves. Like other day activities when the social worker was running the session of children, he noticed Wahid. Then after the session he talked with Wahid personally and enquired about this life and the case of his presence to the center. After a long while of counselling, he told about his history for being there. Through counselling he was convinced for return back to his family. Then with the help of Probation officer of Khulna, JJS contacted with the probation officer of Chapainawabganj. But due to some legal procedure at that day his home returning was stopped. Then he was shifted to Sheikh Rasel rehabilitation center with the help of Khulna CMM court probation officer. After shifting to Sheikh Rasel center, JJS and Sheikh Rasel center jointly tried with his family. After trying several ways at 30 August, 2018 Wahid's father, reached at Khulna Sheikh Rasel Center. There Wahid and his father was counselled about child protection and child development. After that the Deputy Director of Sheikh Rasel hand over Wahid's responsibility to his father at 1:30 pm, 30 August, 2018. With the help of JJS, Wahid is now back to his family.
